

WORLD NEWS IN PICTURES

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

MISSING IN BERLIN—Among three men reported missing after visiting the Russian zone in Berlin is Geo. F. Baumann, Jr., of Philadelphia, Pa. A member of the 10th U.S. Air Force squadron, Baumann failed to report to his unit and U.S. army authorities have questioned Post officials. There had been no reply.

HEALTH SERVICES CONDUCTED—The immunization campaign being conducted by the Bruce County, Ont., health unit should wipe out diphtheria, measles and whooping cough among children when Dr. William Fowler, director, finishes the drive. He is seen here with three of his young friends, Irene Valak, Betty and Helen Frank.

Children are receiving immunization at the 67 schools in the country being toured by the director and two nurses. Here children wait outside separate U.S. No. 4, Grenock, Ont., and Brent, Ont., for their inoculations. They break into a holiday to attend.

PRINCE AT PLAY—Few probably never have more fun in his whole life than he is having now, this little man so happily at play in Stockholm, Sweden. Very soon the youngster will become aware of his responsibilities and then the fun will stop. He is Prince Carl Gustaf Adolf, son of Prince Gustaf Adolf, who was killed in an airplane accident, thus moving the child one step nearer to the throne.

PAINTING'S NO CHILD'S PLAY IN THIS CASE—150 feet above the main highway, perched at Niagara Falls, Ont., where winds sweeping the gorge add to the hazard, painting is no child's play. Specialist brought from Brooklyn, N.Y., for the job will in a hour's chair as he works on a groiner of the Whirlpool Rapids bridge at Niagara Falls.

HONORED IN FIELD OF JOURNALISM—Mrs. Robb, brilliant correspondent, smiles happily as she is given the University of Missouri honor award for outstanding journalism. Mrs. Robb, who was the first woman to win the Pulitzer Prize for journalism, was part of the 19th annual U.S. Journalism News. Dan Frank, Laffer, Mott, of the U. of M. school of Journalism make the presentation to Mrs. Robb, who received this—her second honor this year. She was recently presented with the George R. Holmes award in New York—the first woman correspondent to win this coveted award.

EX-KING PETER OF YUGOSLAVIA ATTENDS MASS—Ex-King Peter of Yugoslavia, currently visiting the U.S., is shown as he shakes hands with the Rev. D. J. Shooksterovich, as Bishop Nikolai and Queen Alexandra look on. Peter and Queen Alexandra were at the Serbian cathedral of St. Sava, New York, to attend an orthodox mass.

ANGLERS DRAWN TO FAMOUS ALGONQUIN PARK—The smoky hills, lakes and streams of Algonquin Park in northern Ontario, as viewed from the air, present a never-ending panorama of beauty as anglers fly to the selected lakes. Fighting spotted trout and gray hunkers of great weight in the depths of the lakes test out Algonquin's fame as one of Canada's greatest trout fishing areas and a vacation paradise.

FROM QUEEN OF ICE TO QUEEN OF BLOSSOMS—Gredalen Merrill, U.S. women's national figure skater, who was crowned Queen of the Ice at the 1934-35 season, is shown here at the 1935-36 season, when she was crowned Queen of Blossoms. Merrill is shown here at the 1935-36 season, when she was crowned Queen of Blossoms. Merrill is shown here at the 1935-36 season, when she was crowned Queen of Blossoms.

MOTHER ACCUSED OF SLAYING TWO BABIES—Accused by police of murdering her two infant daughters, Patricia Ann, one year, and Katherine May, 10 days old, Mrs. Catherine Behrens, 21, is returned to her hospital room in New York under guard after an unsuccessful attempt on her own life. The older daughter was suffocated with a dukey and the younger with a pillow. Mrs. Behrens was found on the floor of the family apartment in New York with her throat slashed, according to police. She was charged with homicide. Her husband, Martin, a parcel checker, who discovered the tragedy, could give her no reason for the act.

PAINTPROOF BABY STUMPS DOCTORS—Born insensitive to pain, one-year-old Beverly Smith is given a needle-pain test by Helen Zimmerman, nurse in an Akron, O., hospital where the infant's strange case is being studied by physicians. Doctors say only four or five other "painproof" children have been born in the world. The case first attracted attention when the mother, Mrs. Vilmar Smith, brought Beverly to the hospital for an anti-anemia injection. Mrs. Smith revealed that the baby merely laughed after receiving a hot stove.

WINS $2,000 AWARD—Shirley Louise Shantz, 24, Toledo university, was awarded $2,000 damages and costs in an unexpected breach-of-promise action against Eugene O. Grillo, a downtown government clerk. Miss Shantz told the court that they met in 1940 and it was not until 1945 that she learned he was married.

Eugene O. Grillo, who did not defend the action, was a lieutenant with the Canadian army and served overseas.

BOXCARS PLUNGE INTO RIVER—Boxcars scattered downstream for hundreds of yards after this accident, seen from the air, near Ford, Ont., a head in the foreground checked numbers of cars in the Sturgeon river, while in the background are seen viewing spectators.

